Intermediate Extract

Read the following extract:

Dear Sarah,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to let you know about our upcoming trip to the mall. We're planning on going next weekend to check out the new store that just opened up there. They have all sorts of unique items, especially in their fashion section.

There's also a big sale happening now at several shops downtown. If you can spare some time this week, I'd love for us to go and grab some great deals before they're gone completely. The prices are absolutely astronomical right now because the demand is so high from all the tourists visiting town.

The main reason we're going next weekend though is that my parents-in-law are coming to visit then. They have a strict schedule, but I think you'll be fine if you just show up on Saturday morning with some shopping bags and ready to chat about your favorite new finds.

Anyway, let me know what time works for you this week or next. I'm sure we can find an overlap somewhere.
